

Kloovenburg Sauvignon Blanc 2005

With a green tint at the edges, the brilliant colour of this Sauvignon Blanc prepares for definite green notes surrounding a subtle tropical bouquet. The intriguing nose follows through offering hints of asparagus and cut grass on the aftertaste. A crisp and fresh characteristic style of Sauvignon Blanc.

At 370 m above sea level, this vineyard boasts to be the highest Sauvignon in the Swartland region.

Wild pigs in the Riebeeck Mountain have singled out this vineyard as their favorite.

Early mornings before sunrise they sneak down and feast on the juicy flesh of these grapes. That is the big reason for having security guards in our vineyard.
