

Villiera Rhine Riesling 1999

Due to ideal conditions prevailing in 1999 for a late harvested Rhine Riesling, we picked some of the fruit late with some botrytis influence. The result is a rich aromatic Rhine Riesling with excellent maturation potential. There is a richness on the nose with spicy and floral aromas. Made in a drier style than previous years.

Locally it is labelled "Rhine Riesling". The prefix Rhine identifies it as a variety of German origin so as to avoid confusing it with Cape Riesling (which is Crouchen Blanc).
