

ilka Cabernet Sauvignon 2004

Only available to private clients of Alluvia Wine Estate (limited to 12 bottles per annum) and select restaurants of distinction.

Colour: Ruby, dark red – brilliant concentrated extraction.

Nose: Spicy with dark, ripe plums and kind oaky aromas.

Palate: Plums following through to a lengthy and lasting finish showing tremendous complexity in balance within a firm tannin structure and full bodied. Round, heavy mouth-feel.

ilka Cabernet Sauvignon 2004 is a big and serious wine. A wine which has taken the wine-fraternities imagination. Already showing exceptional regard with world renowned critics – possibly one of the most exclusive ultra premium wines.

variety : Cabernet Sauvignon | 94% Cabernet Sauvignon, 3% Petit Verdot, 3% Merlot

winery : Alluvia Boutique Winery and Hotel

winemaker : Delarey Brugman, Chris Kalp wine of origin : Coastal analysis : alc : 14.5 % vol rs : 1.83 g/l ta : 5.73 g/l type : Red style : Dry body : Full wooded pack : Bottle closure : Cork

in the cellar : Production Team:

Kevin Watt, Francois Viljoen, Bruwer Raats, Neil Moorehouse and Delarey Brugman (Convener)

14 months in Oak - 1/3 New Oak, 1/3 2nd Fill, 1/3 3rd Fill

