

Sagila Chenin Blanc 2005

The Sagila Chenin Blanc has fabulous pear and marmalade aromas that follow through from the nose to the palate. Perfectly balanced acidity and crispness produce a wine perfect for “stand alone” drinking or as a food accompaniment.

variety : Chenin Blanc | 100% Chenin Blanc

winery : Sagila Wines

winemaker : Mzokhona Mvemve

wine of origin :

analysis :

type : White

in the vineyard : Grapes were sourced from Bottleray, Stellenbosch region, selected south-west facing vineyards of one farm. Vines vary between 15 – 20 years in age and approximately 40% are bush vines and the balance trellised.

in the cellar : Yield was between 6 tonnes per hectare and all fruit was hand sorted on tables prior to destemming and crushing. Extended lees contact, for about 4 months produce a fuller mouth feel, yet each wine retains its individuality and varietal characteristics.
