

Juno Rose 2007

Colour: A bright, attractive deep salmon-pink colour

Nose: Abundant floral tones and strawberries on the nose.

Palate: Refreshingly crisp palate with strawberry, ruby grapefruit and watermelon. The palate is fresh and fruity but definitely not too sweet. This Rose has a clean, crisp finish that lingers for a good 17 seconds.

This off-dry Ros  would be good with many fish dishes, especially with salmon and pink-fleshed trout; with cooked lobster dishes and a seafood soup or stew. Because of its typical character, it would work very well with baked ham; Peking duck; a rabbit casserole and Thai noodle dishes. ROS  AND CHEESE Unfortunately this is not really a cheese wine.
