

The Pirate of Cocoa Hill Rose 2007

Michaelangelo 2007 Silver

The initial attraction of this Ros has to be its alluring colour. With nuances of strawberries and cream and some herbaceous notes on the nose all combine fantastically to present a fresh flavour packed appeal. On the first entry into the palate one is encountered by great freshness and clean elegance with flavours of berries and some citrus too along with its inherent fullness due to the extended lees ageing. An all round wine that can truly be enjoyed with any occasion.
