

Ridgeback Viognier 2006

2007 Michelangelo International Wine Awards - Silver Medal

Fresh upfront lime and white peach with notes of orange rind and glazed pineapple is well supported by clove oak spice. This full bodied white wine impresses with a long mineral finish and nutty aftertaste.

ageing : Drink now to 3 years.

in the vineyard : East-West facing vertical shoot positioned vines are grown in Oakleaf and Clovelly soils that are irrigated according to soil moisture and leaf water potential requirements.

about the harvest: Grapes were handpicked on 14 February 2006. Bunches were picked at full ripeness.

Analysis -

Sugar: 25.1° Balling

Acid: 4.85 g/l

pH: 3.65

in the cellar : Grapes were destemmed without crushing. Wholeberry component to press at about 70%. Juice settled overnight with pectolytic enzyme in stainless steel tanks. Clear juice was gravity fed to 225 litre barriques (100% French Oak). All barriques were fermented spontaneously so no commercial yeasts were used. Wine was matured for 14 months and batonnaged regularly to develop mouthfeel. Wine was given a light filtration to bottling.

Bottled: 20 June 2007
