

Glen Carlou Grand Classique 1995

This wine has a deep purple to ruby red, intense and brilliant colour. The nose is of cloves, sandalwood, fresh berries, slight spice nuances with ripe tannins, clean intense fruit mainly black berries. The finish is long & full in the mouth with perfect balance.

variety : |

winery : Glen Carlou Vineyards

winemaker : David Finlayson

wine of origin : Paarl

analysis : alc : 13.1 % vol   rs : 1.7 g/l   pH : 3.4   ta : 6.1 g/l

type : Sparkling

pack : Bottle   closure : Cork

ageing : 2002 to 2010

in the cellar : A blend of 65% Cabernet, 28% Merlot, 7% Cabernet Franc. This wine follows the classic styles of Grand Classique as they have been set from our first vintage in 1989. The 1995 should last for a very long time as it is perfectly balanced analytically and in flavour, promising a great wine in years to come.

