

Graham Beck Railroad Red 1998

A delightful and popular early-drinking wine with a rich spice nose that has layers of berry flavours and supple fruit tannins on the palate. This wine is a true reflection of the vintage and components may therefore change. However, the easy-drinking, succulent fruit style will always be prominent. Enjoy with veal, rich and creamy pasta dishes, pork and poultry.

variety : |

winery : House of Graham Beck

winemaker : Pieter Ferreira wine of origin : Breede River analysis : alc : 13.42 % vol rs : 2.17 g/l ta : 5.78 g/l type : Red

pack : Bottle

in the cellar : A blend of Shiraz and Cabernet Sauvignon.

House of Graham Beck

Robertson

023 626 1214

www.grahambeck.com

