

Graham Beck The William 2005

Typical expression of a well structured unique South African blend. Flavours of plum, cherries, cinnamon and cigarbox. Soft and well structured tannins with loads of berry fruit and spices on the palate.

The Name: The William is named after the first grandson of Graham Beck the 3rd generation in this family business.

Spicy Cape Malayian dishes, rich meaty or vegetable casseroles, sliced beef, game biltong or at a traditional South African braai.
