

Bouchard Finlayson Galpin Peak Pinot Noir Tete de Cuvée 2007

in the vineyard : It is said that Pinot Noir has no individual varietal character of its own but, is rather characterized by the soil on which it grows. Essentially it is the most terroir specific varietal of all.

about the harvest: Vintage 2007 presented a small crop of first class grapes. Rich full wines emerged with excellent early drinking expression.

in the cellar : Our Tête de Cuvée label signifies my creative opportunity to select a handful of the finest barrels in the cellar and blend these to acquire a wine which will portray the best of the vintage. This only happens in years of outstanding overall quality.
