

Graham Beck Bowed Head Chenin Blanc 2008

Upfront tropical fruit, ripe pineapple, melon, peaches and honeysuckle flavours on the nose. Full and creamy palate with layers of ripe tropical fruit and spices complemented by a long clean and crisp aftertaste. Will mature for up to 3 years in the bottle.

Good company for Alfresco lunches. Also great with grilled chicken or fish, rich pasta dishes and spicy food.

variety : Chenin Blanc | 100% Chenin Blanc

winery : House of Graham Beck

winemaker : Irene Waller

wine of origin : Robertson

analysis : alc : 13.62 % vol   rs : 5.21 g/l   pH : 3.41   ta : 6.57 g/l

type : White   wooded

pack : Bottle   closure : Cork

in the vineyard : Area of origin: Western Cape, South Africa.

Low yielding, 40 - 45 year old bush vines on rolling hills exposed to south eastern winds, rain and lots of sunshine. Dryland vineyards planted on very deep soils.

in the cellar : The grapes were left to ripen fully to ensure the development of the rich and ripe flavours of Chenin Blanc and for complexity. Barrel fermented and matured for 8 month in French oak barrels.

House of Graham Beck

Robertson

023 626 1214

www.grahambeck.com

