

Glen Carlou Grand Classique 1996

Deep purple to ruby red, intense brilliant colour. Cloves, sandalwood, fresh berries and slight spice nuances. Ripe tannin, clean intense fruit, blackberries. The finish is long and full in the mouth with excellent balance.

variety : |

winery : Glen Carlou Vineyards

winemaker : David Finlayson

wine of origin : Paarl

analysis : alc : 13.0 % vol   rs : 3.3 g/l   pH : 3.48   ta : 6.0 g/l

type : Sparkling

pack : Bottle   closure : Cork

ageing : 2001 to 2009

in the cellar : A blend of 65% Cabernet Sauvignon, 25% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc. A wine made for cellaring, it follows the classic French blends as they have been made from our first vintage in 1989. The 1996 should last for a very long time as it is perfectly balanced analytically and in flavour, promising a great wine in years to come!

