Windmeul Chenin Blanc 2009

The wine is lively, fresh and fruity with the guava nose typical of this varietal very e ident on the nose and palate. Well balanced and crisp, this is an easy drinking wine at its best when youthful and zesty.
@ R24.00

This wine will perfectly complement sunny salads, fish and white meats.

in the vineyard : Good showers in late autumn were followed by lower than average rainfall during the winter period. A late Summer gave us better fruit-acids before the sugars started to rise.

Our Chenin vines are between 25 and 40 years old and yield between 407 tons/ha. They are planted on east facing slopes in well-drained stony and shale soils.
