

Jacques Smit Cabernet Sauvignon 2004

In this wine the oak's contribution culminates in an intriguing dried herb, dusty savouriness. With the cellar's trademark juiciness, there's a fresh seam that gives good drinkability and a long finish.

A versatile match with food: risottos, poultry and meat dishes, especially steak.

variety : Cabernet Sauvignon | 100% Cabernet

winery : Jacques Smit Wines

winemaker : Jacques Smit wine of origin : Wellington analysis : alc : 14.38 % vol   rs : 2.2 g/l   pH : 3.86   ta : 5.5 g/l wooded

pack : Bottle   closure : Cork

