

Paradyskloof Rose 2009

Following its debut in 2008, the Paradyskloof Rosè 2009 is sure to remain the popular choice as accompaniment to any leisurely summer lunch.

The current vintage is made predominantly from Mourvèdre grapes, with splashes of Pinot Noir, Shiraz and Grenache. Beautiful aromas of candy floss, marshmallow, raspberry and floral notes dominate the bouquet.

The wine shows red fruit and fresh red berries on the palate with a hint of crisp minerality on the finish.
