

La Petite Ferme Sauvignon Blanc 2000

We are delighted at the way in which the wine has developed with litchi and pineapple flavours being most dominant, a wine that is fuller and more serious than previous vintages.

analysis : alc : 13.5 % vol rs : 2.2 g/l ta : 6.0 g/l in the cellar : No Oaking. Overnight skin contact and gentle pressing. January 2000 was an unusually long and hot month. The build-up to harvest was extremely nerve-racking as the Sauvignon Blanc prefers a slower, cooler ripening phase. The end result is a Sauvignon Blanc with a tropical approach, rather than the typically grassy style.
