

Painted Wolf The Den Chenin Blanc 2010

An elegant full bodied wine with tropical flavors of creamy pineapple, melon and vanilla. The wine has a lovely texture with a long finish with just enough acid to keep it really fresh and vibrant. The wine has been sealed with a screw cap to maintain its freshness.

The Den Chenin Blanc is delicious on its own. The wine has tons of flavors and is just off-dry so it's a versatile partner for many different dishes.

John Platter - 3 Stars (2011)

in the vineyard : The Chenin Blanc is harvested from a number of blocks on Leeuwenkuil. The grapes are from blocks which are irrigated, dry farmed blocks and from vines of 20 to 40 years old.

about the harvest: Yield: 4 in the cellar : This wine was made from ripe grapes picked to deliver a rich flavor and texture. The wine was fermented at 15° C till about 10 balling and then cooled down to 6° where it continued to slowly ferment for a further 2 months building glycerol and texture in the wine.

Wood Treatment: 30% of the wine was fermented with traditional roast long French oak staves.
