

Centennial Shiraz - Fairtrade 2010

This Shiraz has a deep red colour, hinting that you are about to taste a wine with a rich concentration of flavours. The first whiff of this wine delivers exactly what you had expected - a delicate balance between intense white pepper and ripe, black berries on the nose. The oak component of this wine is well integrated and not over powering. The palate complements the nose and is very smooth, with well-structured tannin and body. This wine finishes off with a long and lasting aftertaste of ripe black berries and various spices.
