

Goats do Roam Rosé 2010

Bright colour in the glass, with delicate aromas of red fruit and berry. The entry on the palate is slightly sweet and fruit-driven, finishing on an intense yet refreshing note. Surprisingly complex with a lingering aftertaste.

variety : Shiraz | 40% Shiraz, 31% Grenache, 17% Gamay, 12% Mourvedre

winery : Fairview Wines

winemaker : Anthony de Jager wine of origin : Coastal analysis : alc : 13.5% vol rs : 3.6g/l g/l pH : 3.40 ta : 5.9g/l g/l type : Rose style : Dry body : Light taste : Fruity pack : Bottle closure : Screwcap in the vineyard : Most of the fruit is from trellised vineyards on Fairview with supplementary drip irrigation, planted on decomposed granite soils. Supplementary fruit is from unirrigated bushvines in the Swartland, and from an old bushvine vineyard in the Piekenierskloof near Citrusdal.

about the harvest: HARVEST DATE: 2nd and 3rd week of February 2010

