

Muratie Anselva van de Caab 2007

On the nose you get a lot of concentrated fruit flavours ranging from dark fruit to lighter red fruit. The palette is very concentrated with an abundance of flavours varying from intense fruit flavours to cigar box nuances. The flavours and tannins are meticulously woven together to form a totally balanced wine that lingers on in your mouth long after the last drop is savoured.

This wine, with its velvety tannins will go great with red meat or any savoury dishes.
