

Pearly Bay Cape White NV

A refreshing dry wine with scents of summer blossoms, clean hay and mown grass. In the mouth the fruit salad flavours are friendly with a crisp, lemony tang to finish.

A summer wine to be enjoyed on its own or with picnic fare - bread, cheese and salad.

variety: Chenin Blanc | Chenin Blanc Colombar

winery: Pearly Bay

winemaker: The Winemaking Team

wine of origin: Paarl

analysis: type:White

ageing: Enjoy in its prime.

in the vineyard: Climate: Moderate dry summers with cold rainy winters and an average rainfall of 600mm per year. Soil: Well drained fertile soils.

about the harvest: Grapes are harvested at 20 - 22° Balling.

printed from wine.co.za on 2024/03/28