

Fortress Hill Sauvignon Blanc 2009

A delicate fruity white wine with upfront tropical flavours, crisp and dry with a lingering aftertaste.

This well balanced, easy drinking wine is delightful with white meat and fish dishes.

in the vineyard : The grapes came from trellised vines planted in 1983 in decomposed granite soil. These North and South facing vineyards are located 310 meters above sea level.

about the harvest: The grapes were hand picked from selected blocks of vineyards in the 3rd week of February 2009.

in the cellar : Utmost care was taken with the winemaking process, to maintain all the vulnerable fruity flavours of this cultivar.
