

Julien Schaal Chardonnay 2010

Eye: A golden wine with the green reflections of youth and silvery shades that dance within the glass. This wine has a rich and full texture that tells of a good concentration. It is bright, clear and charming.

Nose: On the nose this wine is of a classic style, it has aromas that reveal fresh citrus notes and floral touches of white flowers. Apples, pears, peaches and angelica are found here, followed by complex hints of brioche and vanilla, after aeration. The ageing in this wine is discreet and simply adds to the depth of this beauty.

Palate: In the mouth this is a supple and incisive wine, it is clear, smooth and easy to drink, it is overflowing with white flowers and citrus fruits and well as the typical Chardonnay touches of nuts and almonds. The buttery edge to this wine confirms that it is a Chardonnay, it has citrus hints throughout and an extreme finesse.
