Wamakersvallei Duke of Wellington Muscat D'Alexandrie 1999

A golden dessert wine. Sweet and luscious on the nose and palate - yet not over-heavy. Wellington, a town resting in the heart of the beautiful Cape Winelands, was once known as "The valley of the Wagonmaker". This town was renamed in Honour of the Duke of Wellington in 1840. Courageous as a British soldier, the Duke conquered Napoleon Bonaparte becoming the legendary hero of the battle of Waterloo. A Historical Victory! His excellency, the Duke of Wellington, proudly invites you to taste - and be conquered!
