about the harvest: Varieties that are grown in the Wellington area, in the classical tradition of the finest Ports in the world.

in the cellar : After the harvest the grapes were crushed and destemmed and fermented in Rotor tanks. When the right sugar levels were obtained, the fermenting grapes were pressed and the juice fortified with brandy spiritus from the KWV. After maturation in stainless steel tanks the vintages were blended together, protein stabilized with Wyoming Bentonite and naturally cold stabilized.
