

Bellingham Pinotage 1999

Colour: Deep, intense ruby with the purple tinge of typical of Pinotage.

Nose: Complex and intense with layered aromas of ripe raspberry, vanilla, banana and fruitcake.

Palate: A rich complexity of flavours including raspberry, vanilla, spices and coffee. Smooth on the palate due to firm but friendly tannins which allow for easy drinking but also promise ageing potential. The after taste of red berry fruit and hints of spice lingers pleasantly on the palate.

Overall: A well-structured, lush, outspoken and rich Pinotage. Good use of oak, which although evident, is well integrated. Smooth to drink now, but also shows ageing potential.

Food suggestion: Game, ostrich fillet, hearty casseroles, meaty pasta dishes.
