

Mont Destin Destiny Shiraz 2008

Voluptuous, intense, sensuous and well-balanced. Complex and layered with mouth-filling rich, ripe cassis (black currant and blackberry) with hints of black pepper. A meaty savouriness with undertones of cedar wood and cigar box is apparent on the palate. The tannins are supple and the wine has a long finish.

about the harvest: The grapes were handpicked and transported to the cellar in small lug boxes.

in the cellar : On arrival at the winery, the bunches underwent sorting, followed by destemming, then further hand-sorting to remove any remaining stems. Fermentation was slow and gentle. The skins were basket-pressed and the wine matured for 21 months in 2 new French oak barrels and 1 second-fill French oak barrel.
