

De Bos Walker Bay Sauvignon Blanc 2012

COLOUR: Vibrant green heart with lime green rim.

NOSE: Mélange of kiwi, gooseberries, passionfruit, flint (as in mineral tones) and vegetal notes (light grassiness / "fynbos" characters).

PALATE: Beautiful mouth feel with a long fruit packed, persistent finish.

One of the wines on the list one could happily have on its own or as aperitif but pairs well with salads and meals with chicken or fish. A wine which will enliven any meal.

ageing : To be enjoyed 1 to 3 years after the year of vintage.

in the vineyard : From our Vine garden and Mursie vineyards overlooking Walker Bay at the foothills of the Babylonstoren mountains.

in the cellar : The cooled grapes are pressed using reductive measures to ensure as much as possible retention of the fragile fragrant notes of Sauvignon blanc. The settled juice is then inoculated and fermented at cool temperatures to ensure a long fermentation and to develop as much as possible complex compounded flavours.
