

Hermanuspietersfontein Bloos 2013

A unique wine. Blended as juice from five different Bordeaux varieties. A new generation Rosé with an abundance of cherry, raspberry, mulberry and candyfloss flavours and a touch of French oak.

- Colour: salmon pink, like a good champagne
- Acidity: refreshing
- Length: long
- Consistency: supple
- Structure: layered
- Finish: clean
- Balance: flowing
- Complexity: refined
- Overall Impression: This not "just another Rosé" - this wine wears the HPF label with dignity and pride.

It is unique because it is made from vineyards specially selected for our Bloos and fermented after the blend was made up in juice form. The delectable shy maiden. The first South African Rosé made from the five Bordeaux varieties.
