Background

The grapes for the Earthbound range of mostly organic wines are sourced from Fairtrade-accredited Papkuilsfontein Vineyards near Darling, close to South Africa's rugged West Coast. The farm has 375 ha under vine of which 173 ha is organically grown.

Organic

The vines were certified as organic by the Société Générale de Surveillance (SGS) after a three-year conversion process.

Fairtrade-accredited

For every ton of grapes harvested for this wine, a premium of €0,50 is paid that goes towards projects intended to benefit workers on the farm, Papkuilsfontein Vineyards, near Darling. A joint body, representing the workers decides on how premiums will be spent.

BWI member

Papkuilsfontein is a member of the Biodiversity & Wine Initiative that seeks to protect the wealth of biodiversity found in the Cape Floral Kingdom by rehabilitating land on wine farms to indigenous habitat.

about the harvest: The grapes were harvested by hand at 23.5° to 24.7° Balling at the end of January and early February.

in the cellar : The juice was fermented in temperature-controlled stainless steel tanks. After fermentation the wine was racked of its gross lees and then stabilised and bottled.
