in the vineyard : The grapes for the wine were derived from a 24 hectare vineyard, planted in 1977 and 1990 at 3 704 vines per hectare, and at an altitude of 160 m above sea-level. The vines, planted on a west-facing slope, are trellised in order to keep the grapes cool and healthy.

about the harvest: The rainfall during the winter before the vintage, as well as the growing season (September – December) was lower than the long-term figures. The annual rainfall was 663mm for the 1998/1999 season compared to the average annual rainfall of 734mm. The harvest took place between 30 March 1999 and 2 April 1999. The grapes were picked by hand - at an average sugar level of 23,5° Balling - and placed in small baskets to prevent bruising.

in the cellar : In the cellar, the juice was given four days' skin contact in open tanks. It was inoculated with yeast type WE 372 and left to ferment at 25° C. Secondary malolactic fermentation was completed on 20 April 1999. The wine was matured for 18 months in oak – 52% in new small French oak and the remaining 48% in second fill American oak barrels. The wine was bottled in February 2001.
