

Bartiney Noble Savage Cabernet Sauvignon Merlot 2010

This ruby red blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot has a vibrant cherry and raspberry nose with a hint of charry oak. The palate is round and concentrated with layered spicy fruit and juicy tannins.

For the adventurous, try pairing with Asian spiced lamb chops on a bed of greens and honey-soy noodles.

'You may not know it but there is a Noble Savage in all of us – a manifestation of sophistication and style, contrasting with a flash of mischief and a sexy sense of fun. Awakening your Noble Savage produces emotions and behaviours that result in the exciting and unexpected – raising eyebrows, raising the temperature and raising the game...'

about the harvest: The grapes were selected from 4 different vineyard sites and hand harvested at an optimum ripeness.

in the cellar : The crop was crushed and destemmed into stainless steel tanks where fermentation got underway and lasted up to 10 days. A strict pump over regime was followed to extract maximum colour and flavour. After fermentation the wine was matured in 2nd and 3rd fill French Oak barrels for 12 months.
