in the vineyard : Warm, dry summers and cold, wet winters. Limited irrigation, mainly dry land and bush vine vineyards.

in the cellar : Fermentation : Time, Temp and Method

Pinotage grapes are crushed and skin contact is allowed for one to two hours. Pressed gently in tank press and the juice settled over night. The juice is fermented at 16 - 18 °C and the fermentation process is stopped at the required sugar level to produce this natural, slightly sweet wine.

Post Blending : Treatment

Filtered and stored in stainless steel tanks until bottling.
