The grapes selected for this wine came from selected blocks on various farms in the Coastal and Breede River region of the Western Cape. Grapes sourced from trellised and bush vines and produced 10 - 15 tons per hectare.

about the harvest: Grapes were hand harvested from selected vineyard blocks that vary from bush vine to trellised vines.

in the cellar : Grapes were de-stemmed, slightly crushed before pressing and given brief skin contact. Free run juice settled in the tanks overnight and the following morning, the clear settled juice, of the individual block selections (some kept separate and some blended) were racked from their lees and inoculated with selected yeast strains. Fermentation was temperature controlled. Maturation occurred on the fine lees for another three months to give extra body and elegance. The wine was not oaked.
