

Aaldering Estate Lady M 2014

Pinotage at its purist, is portrayed in this beautifully crafted wine. Initial notes of Mulberries, raspberries and Bing cherries are evident and are backed up with some cinnamon and spice. The palate is clean, fresh and elegant with underlying nuances of plum pudding and silky tannins. Lady M is named after Marianne Aaldering, who was the deciding voice to bottle this wine purely on its beautiful fruit spectrum.

Pintxos, chorizo, red meat cuts, hot curries, aubergine, Indian and Oriental spices.

As per 2014 vintage, our wines are officially qualified as "Estate Wines". The grapes that were used in our winery are grown exclusively in our very own vineyards in Devon Valley, Aalderingestate. The Pinotage this year was harvested a full 8 days later than it was last year, mainly due to cooler growing season and also picking season. The first batch of Pinotage arrived at the cellar on the 21st of February. The first day's harvest was destemmed, crushed, put through a mash cooler and was then coldsoaked for 4 days, so without fermentation being started. This will impart a lighter and fresher structured fruit, as well as more stable colour. Consequent harvests were not cooled and directly inoculated for a darker fruit profile.

about the harvest: This top quality Pinotage crop was harvested over 4 different days.

in the cellar : All wines were subjected to pumpovers 6 times daily, and as long as 1.5 hours initially for maximum fruit extraction. The wine was aged 7 months on gross lees, in stainless steel tanks and underwent natural malolactic fermentation. We served this 'raw' wine during the 'After Cape Wine Braai 2012' which we hosted for 50 wine professionals in our new wine cellar. The taste of this zesty Pinotage accompanied with great French and Dutch cheeses was exquisite, hence the idea was born to bottle part of this wine as an unwooded Pinotage while the rest of the production was taken to French oak barrels for the classic Aaldering Pinotage. In consequent years the demand for this wine has risen drastically. Only a coarse filtration was applied before bottling.
