Brampton Shiraz 2012

A delicately balanced wine with an attractive spectrum of flavours from the first rich impressions of black cherries and ripe plums brushed by alluring floral notes to the overt supporting wood spice that develops on the aftertaste enhancing the primary fruit intensity.

Due to accessible tannin structure, this wine will complement a variety of fine dishes.

about the harvest: Harvested: End of February to end of March 2012 in the cellar : All blocks were crushed and fermented separately in small batches to maximise terroir expressions. Different parcels were blended after 12 months. Sublteties in vinication and origin as well as judicious blending to amplify the best natural character of the components adds to the intrigue and complexity of the final blend.
