The Fat Bastard Merlot was made from carefully selected grapes with the aim to produce ripe-flavoured and silky textured wine.

The grape bunches were de-stemmed only and the whole berries were placed in old open top fermenters and closed top fermenters. 50% of the total crush fermented naturally and the rest was inoculated with a commercial yeast. Tanks were mixed three times daily by pump overs and/or punching through the skin cap. The wine was fermented dry on the skins and pressed off into 225 litre French oak barrels were malo-lactic fermentation the wine was then aged in barrel for 16 months.
