Steenberg Semillon 2013

Light gold with a green hue, ripe tropical fruit on the nose. Aromas of dried apricots, peaches and vanilla the nose. The palate is rich and creamy with lime and citrus notes followed by hints of elder flower and tangerine on the aftertaste.

Best enjoyed with good food and good company.

The wine spent a total of 9 months in barrel, with regular batonage before being racked into a stainless steel tank, where it was lightly fined and stabilized before bottling in January 2013.
