

Nederburg Special Late Harvest 2001

A very careful selection of grapes left to ripen in the vineyards has resulted in this full, rich and prominent, tropical, fruity wine which displays elegance and finesse. The careful balance between sweetness and fruit acidity assures a long, lingering finish, infused with botrytis complexity which carries onto the taste, but is never cloying. The wine flavour covers a wide spectrum of flavour tones, from lemon to peach, terpene to luscious rose petals. Made in a reductive way and unwooded, the 2001 Nederburg Special Late Harvest has a crisp, fresh finish, which makes for a pleasant and versatile wine experience. Enjoy as an aperitif or with mild spicy dishes, dried fruit and baked puddings.
