

Red & White Mixed Case

Org de Rac Chardonnay Lightly Wooded: Org de Rac is situated on the N7 just before Piketberg, and all the vineyards are organically farmed, certified by Control Union. These grapes are grown on the banks of the Berg river and the wine was subtly oaked. Enjoy with chicken on an array of salads.

Cederberg Chenin Blanc: Chenin really is fast becoming the calling card cultivar of South Africa. Cederberg is one of the highest altitude farms in South Africa, which means they don't generally have problems with bugs or diseases. Enjoy this wine from the award-winning wine-makers David Nieuwoudt and Alex & Tammy Turck-Nel who produce extraordinary wines, and this is no exception.

Delheim Sauvignon Blanc: Delheim, situated on the slopes of the Simonsberg outside Stellenbosch, has been a long-standing favourite in the winelands. It is owned by the Sperling family, with patriarch Spatz Sperling being a founding member of the Stellenbosch Wine Route in 1971. This Sauvignon Blanc is youthful, citrusy and tropical - a great summer wine to enjoy with summer salads and is vegan-friendly.

Kleine Zalze Cellar Selection Cabernet Sauvignon: Stellenbosch is classic Cabernet Sauvignon country, and these grapes were manually sorted, ensuring only the best were vinified. This wine is gently oaked and will age well for at least 8 years.

DeWaal Young Vines Merlot: The De Waal farm is well known for still having the oldest producing Pinotage vine in South Africa. This Young Vines Merlot however is from teenage vines, producing a smooth, fruit-driven wine, with flavours of mulberries and cherries.

Painted Wolf the den, Pinotage: Painted Wolf walked off with the title of Most Successful Producer Overall at the 2019 Old Mutual Trophy Awards - so this winery is really pulling in the accolades. This Pinotage is medium to full bodied with a smorgasbord of red and black summer berries, savoury spice and toasty wood flavours, leading to a nicely poised finish
