

He Slept beneath the Stars Sauvignon Blanc 2014

Notes of cut grass, passionfruit and gooseberries on the nose with pineapple green figs and capsicum notes on the palate. Sauvignon Blanc is famous for its drinkability and this wine delivers 100%. It has bright punchy aromatics with a fresh but rounded mouthfeel. The citrusy aftertaste ensures a high refreshment factor that is beyond easy to enjoy.

It pairs well with sunshine, swimming pools, picnics, friends and laughter! Or summer salads, sushi, salt & pepper squid.

"This wine tells the story of Claus Voigts, the legend, the drifter. Its gentle wafts of grass and wild gooseberries depict the mysterious tale of his meandering ways."

These wines are inspired by the stories of Claus Voigts, our Noble Nomad. A man whose journey started at the foot of the Klaasvoogds region in the Roberston wine valley of the Western Cape, South Africa
