

Sadie Family Old Vine Kokerboom 2014

This is the freshest bottling to date. Normally this is one of our white wines that comes in at slightly higher alcohol levels than is the norm, often above 14.5%. In 2014 the grapes ripened early up in the Trekpoort Valley and this is the lowest alcohol Kokerboom to date, being 13.4%. It has more primary flavours than the usual bottling. Very little produced - as always.
