

Mulderbosch Sauvignon Blanc Noble Late Harvest 2011 375ml

Visually appealing, alive with hues of shimmering burnished copper. Powerfully aromatic, displaying cinnamon, stewed apples and wafts of oven-crisp pie crust. The palate is wonderfully intense with toffee apple flavours, quince paste and botrytis spice all accentuated by a lifted, pithy citrus aromatic which leads onto the bright and persistent finish.

Foie gras. Crêpes suzette, crème brûlée, fruit based desserts like fruit tarts and flans, especially when they contain apple. A range of cheeses, particularly Roquefort.

ageing : Will improve up to 15 years from date of vintage.

about the harvest: Perfectly botrytised Sauvignon Blanc berries were handpicked.

in the cellar :

Skin contact allowed overnight before being slowly pressed. The luscious juice was allowed to settle for two days before being racked to French oak barrels. After a lengthy fermentation the wine was left to mature on gross lees for six months. A light fining and filtration preceded bottling.

Barrel Aging: 100% new French oak (225L) for six months
