ageing : This wine was bottled November 2015 and is very young at the moment.

in the vineyard : The grapes for this wine where sourced from a single vineyard in Wellington.

about the harvest: The grapes where harvested at 24 balling in lug boxes.

in the cellar : In the cellar the grapes where fermented at between 18 and 22 degrees with and for 7 days on the skins and malo-lactic fermentation was done in tank. The wine was matured in re-shaven, untoasted French barrels in order to have micro oxidation with the polymerisation of the tannins but minimal toasty influence from the oak.

Only 1583 bottles and 363 magnums were produced.
