56HUNDRED or 5 600 guilders was the price founder, Philippus Wolvaart paid in 1791 for the farm in Paarl he was to call Nederburg. Bright, fresh, succulent, soft and smooth-drinking, these premium wines are a tribute to him. He had the vision to recognise the wine-growing potential of his land and the optimism to clear an untamed property and establish a flourishing farm that continues to thrive today, more than two centuries later.

Available in UK (Tesco)

in the vineyard : The grapes were sourced from a variety of vineyards situated in the Western Cape. The vines are trellised on a four-wire system and received supplementary irrigation during the growing season. The crop was limited to seven tons per hectare.

about the harvest: The grapes were harvested during February at 20,5° to 21,5° Balling.

in the cellar : No skin contact was allowed. The juice was clarified and fermented with a pure yeast culture. After fermentation the wine was blended, stabilized and bottled.
