

Fish Hoek Pinotage 2017

Ripe, juicy red fruit supported by subtle spicy tones. Upfront red plum and fruitcake flavours and well integrated subtle oak provides a delicious lingering finish.

An ideal accompaniment to braais, rare beef, roasted vegetables and mature cheeses.

in the vineyard :

2015 was one of the driest & earliest years, but exceptional quality red wines are expected. The red berries are smaller, good colour, and more intense flavour is expected in the reds.

about the harvest:

Harvest ended 2 weeks earlier than usual in most regions with an expected total of 1.5 million tons for the South African Wine Industry.
