Muratie Melck's White 2017

The only pale thing about this wine is the colour (lemon-green) with everything else packing a fruity punch of flavour and aroma. Plenty of green aromas on the nose give way to some tropical hints on the palate – think pineapple and guava – with some preserved lemons and green gooseberries. Acidity walks a beautifully-balanced line of being deliciously refreshing without being tart, and the lingering finish rounds the wine off in style.

A great summer-sipper on its own or try it as a partner for toasted goats' cheese, salmon roulade or sushi.
