Perdeberg The Dry Land Collection Unwooded Chenin Blanc 2015

An aromatic bouquet follows through on to a plush palate, showcasing sultry tropical fruit flavours that express themselves with mesmerising, mouth-filling intensity. The wine has a well-defined character that makes it a delicious aperitif but has enough fruity charm to make it an excellent food-pairing wine.

ageing :

Indulge yourself now or mature to experience the unique potential of this wine.

in the vineyard :
This un-wooded wine is a fine display of the ability of bush vine Chenin Blanc, grown under dry land conditions, to create intensely flavored and succulent wines. These stressful conditions result in smaller berries with a lower skin to juice ratio, producing high quality wines.

in the cellar : The Dry Land Collection Barrel Fermented Chenin Blanc is a beautiful illustration of rich wooded notes that are seamlessly integrated with ripe fruit characters. Masterfully crafted and matured in French oak barriques, the wine boasts a luxuriously textured palate.
