

Bianco Pinotage 2001

Sold Out

Veritas 2002 - Bronze

International Wine & Spirit Competition - Bronze

Deep ruby edge with dark center showing some gentle wood, youngberries, plums and violets. Fully dry with ripe tannins. Well integrated acid and alcohol. Good length and depth.
This really typical Pinotage, in more of a French style, is drinking very well now.

ageing : Four to six years from vintage. Drinking well now.

in the vineyard : Vines are on a very low trellis system planted in river-bed boulder ground. At veraison bunches are trimmed to retain low yields of quality grapes.

in the cellar : After careful vinification the wine is left to settle in tanks then matured for 12 months in French Oak barriques of various ages.
Bottles will contain some sediment as the wine is unfiltered.
